Welcome to Jackson Hole: Nestled between Yellowstone and Grand Teton National Parks, Jackson Hole is a winter wonderland where rugged wilderness meets refined adventure. Towering peaks dusted in snow, crisp alpine air, and endless powder runs create the perfect backdrop for an unforgettable mountain escape. Whether you're carving down legendary slopes or cozying up fireside after a day of exploration, Jackson Hole captures the very essence of winter in the American West.

The Anvil Hotel: Mountain Style, Modern Soul

Your home base for adventure, The Anvil Hotel is a boutique property in the heart of downtown Jackson that blends old-world craftsmanship with modern comfort. Originally built in the 1950s and lovingly restored, the Anvil exudes a timeless mountain charm - rich wood interiors, custom ironwork, and warm, inviting touches that echo the heritage of the American frontier.

Wake each morning to chef-prepared breakfast before stepping out into the crisp mountain air. With Town Square just steps away, and Grand Teton National Park only 12 miles from your door, the Anvil is perfectly positioned for both adventure and après-ski leisure.

World-Class Skiing

Get ready to conquer one of the most iconic ski destinations in North America. Your one-day lift tickets grant you access to Jackson Hole Mountain Resort, a paradise for skiers and snowboarders alike. With 2,500 acres of legendary terrain - from pristine groomers to heart-pounding steeps and secret powder stashes - Jackson Hole delivers the ultimate mountain thrill.

After a day on the slopes, unwind in town with a craft cocktail by the fire or savor the flavors of the West at one of Jackson's acclaimed local restaurants.
