The engine growls, your hands grip the wheel, and with one press of the pedal, the Ferrari Portofino springs to life — sleek, powerful, unmistakably Italian. You'll fly along 65 kilometers of countryside and mountain roads, the wind rushing past as vineyards and hilltop villages blur in your periphery. With an expert guide in the passenger seat, each curve becomes a thrill, each straightaway an open invitation to feel the raw power that has made Ferrari a legend.

The Ferrari Experience

After your exhilarating test drive, step into Ferrari's world in Maranello. Wander through the Ferrari Museum, where gleaming race cars, championship trophies, and design marvels tell the story of speed and innovation. Then, board a shuttle for a guided factory tour, circling the hallowed grounds where artistry and engineering merge to create the world's most iconic cars.

Balsamic Cellar Visit with Lunch

From horsepower to heritage, Modena also seduces with its flavors. At a traditional aceto balsamico tradizionale cellar, oak barrels line the walls, each filled with vinegar that has been patiently aging for decades. The air is sweet, tangy, alive with history. Learn how generations have perfected this craft, then sit down to a light lunch where every bite sings of the region: sharp cheeses paired with silky balsamic, sparkling Lambrusco wine that dances on the palate, and stories shared over the table. It's an authentic taste of Emilia-Romagna's soul.

Accommodations in Modena

Your home base is a 4-star hotel in Modena's Old Town, surrounded by cobblestone streets, medieval towers, and the soaring Romanesque cathedral. Wake to church bells echoing across the piazza, sip espresso at a sidewalk café, and wander through bustling markets where locals trade fresh pasta, cheeses, and flowers. At night, trattorias beckon with rich ragù, tortellini in brodo, and the warmth of Italian hospitality. This is Modena — historic, vibrant, and unforgettable.

(Please note: drivers must be 21+ with an international driver's license; entry into the factory floor is not permitted.)
