Bordeaux: Where Refinement Meets Flavor

Welcome to Bordeaux — a city where wide boulevards, graceful bridges, and golden stone architecture set the stage for indulgence. From café-lined squares to riverside promenades, Bordeaux invites you to slow down, sip slowly, and savor deeply.

Michelin-Starred Dining at Le Pavillon des Boulevards

- Step into one of Bordeaux's most celebrated dining rooms, where every dish is art on a plate.
 - Experience a multi-course blind tasting menu, where each bite reveals a new surprise.
 - Classic French technique meets modern creativity, creating flavors that linger long after the last bite.
 - Expect an evening of elegance, imagination, and unforgettable gastronomy.

Private Bike Tour & Wine Tasting Experience

- See Bordeaux from a local's perspective on a 3-hour private bike tour.
- Glide past elegant architecture, tree-lined boulevards, and along the Garonne River.

- Visit the Musée du Vin et du Négoce, a museum of wine merchants housed in 18th-century cellars.
 - Enjoy a guided tasting of three Bordeaux wines, discovering how centuries of tradition have shaped each pour.
 - The ride is leisurely, the history rich, and the flavors — unmistakably Bordeaux.

Your Stay: Elegance in the City Center

- Five nights in a beautifully appointed 2-bedroom, 2-bathroom apartment in central Bordeaux.
 - Step outside into a neighborhood filled with bistros, boutiques, and boulangeries.
 - The perfect blend of French sophistication and relaxed comfort — your home for wine, laughter, and lasting memories.
