Where Wine Country Dreams Come to Life: Tucked in the heart of Sonoma County, Healdsburg captures everything that makes California wine country so irresistible — rustic charm, refined flavor, and rolling hills draped in vineyards. Here, mornings begin with golden light filtering through redwoods, afternoons are filled with cellar tastings and farm-fresh meals, and evenings unfold over candlelit tables and world-class wines. This is where passion meets palate — a celebration of craftsmanship, creativity, and connection.

The Setting Wines at Montage Healdsburg: A Tasting Crafted by a Master

Step into the serene elegance of Montage Healdsburg, where your private The Setting Wines tasting awaits — an experience crafted to showcase some of the most celebrated wines in California today. Your host guides you through a selection of five limited productions, highlight acclaimed single vineyard designated wines from Napa — The Setting Wines — a label made famous by Jesse Katz, Wine Enthusiast's Winemaker of the Year and the visionary behind some of the most sought-after small-production wines in the country.

Each glass reveals his signature style: precision, purity, and power wrapped in velvet texture. Rich Cabernet Sauvignons, expressive Bordeaux blends, and beautifully lifted whites unfold one layer at a time. A chef-curated locally sourced cheese and charcuterie board enhances every sip, featuring artisan cheeses, cured meats, local honey, and seasonal accompaniments.

Set against vineyard views and the refined backdrop of the Montage, this tasting is both luxurious and deeply personal — a chance to savor wines crafted by one of the most acclaimed winemakers of our time.

Aperture Cellars: A Private Tasting

Step inside Aperture Cellars and you'll immediately understand why this estate has become one of California's most talked-about destinations. Here enjoy a private tasting which unfolds in a pristine, light-filled room with floor-to-ceiling windows overlooking the estate vineyards — a space designed to make every moment feel elevated and intimate. You'll begin with a glass of French grower Champagne, the perfect prelude to the journey ahead.

From there, your host guides you through a curated flight of six limited-production wines, each one showcasing a different expression of cool-climate Bordeaux varietals sourced from premier vineyard sites across Sonoma County. Every pour is accompanied by thoughtful, seasonal food pairings crafted to highlight the depth, texture, and personality of each wine. This is more than a tasting; it's an immersion into craft, creativity, and the captivating beauty of Sonoma wine country.

The Matheson: A Culinary Love Letter to Wine Country

Dinner at The Matheson, led by acclaimed chef Dustin Valette, is an intimate journey through the heart of Sonoma's culinary landscape. Your evening begins with a playful sense of discovery at the restaurant's iconic 88-bottle Wine Wall, where each guest receives a tasting card to explore, swirl, and sip at their own pace — creating a flight as personal as it is delicious.

From there, settle into the warm glow of the dining room for a five-course tasting menu that captures Sonoma's soul. Every plate is crafted from the region's seasonal bounty, transformed with the finesse and artistry that define Valette's cuisine. Each course is thoughtfully paired with wines from The Setting, Aperture, and Valette, elevating flavors and weaving a story of the vineyards and people behind them.

Your evening concludes with a sweet, spirited flourish: a handcrafted cocktail, cordial, or port served tableside — the final chapter in a meal that feels less like dinner and more like a sensory love letter to wine country.
