Experience the true essence of Italy — where rolling hills, sunlit vineyards, and centuries-old olive groves meet art, history, and world-class cuisine. Journey through Rome, where the rhythm of daily life hums through ancient streets, and escape north to the peaceful valleys of Tuscany where slow living and rich flavors reign supreme.

This is Italy at its most authentic: mornings filled with the aroma of espresso, afternoons exploring cobblestone villages, and evenings savoring wine under the Tuscan sky.

A Culinary Experience at Fattoria Colleverde

Step into the heart of Tuscany's culinary soul at Fattoria Colleverde, an organic vineyard and olive estate nestled among the rolling hills outside Lucca. Here, time slows — the air scented with rosemary and freshly pressed olive oil, the rhythm of life guided by the harvest.

Begin your experience with a guided walk through the vineyards and olive groves, followed by a visit to the wine cellar and olive mill, where generations of craftsmanship have perfected the art of winemaking and oil pressing.

Then, step into the kitchen for a hands-on Tuscan cooking and pasta-making class with Chef Rodolfo. Using farm-fresh ingredients, you'll prepare a selection of traditional dishes — from seasonal antipasti to handmade pasta crafted entirely from scratch. Knead, roll, and shape your dough as you learn the secrets behind Italy's most beloved staple, all while the aromas of simmering sauces and fresh herbs fill the air.

Afterward, savor your creations during a leisurely three-course lunch paired with estate wines, served on a terrace overlooking the sunlit hills. Linger over each bite, each sip, and each view — a celebration of connection, flavor, and place.

Beyond the vineyards, Tuscany beckons. Wander Lucca's medieval walls, explore the stone lanes of Barga, or spend a day in Florence, where Renaissance art and history come alive. For nature lovers, the Garfagnana Valley invites you to hike or bike through wildflower meadows and pine-scented hillsides, where every turn feels like a painting.

Renaissance Tuscany Il Ciocco Resort & Spa

Perched high above the Serchio Valley, the Renaissance Tuscany Il Ciocco Resort & Spa blends rustic Tuscan charm with effortless modern luxury. Your five-night stay reveals sweeping views of olive groves, rolling hills, and medieval villages — a landscape that feels like a painting come to life.

Named one of Condé Nast Traveler's Top 10 Resorts in Europe, this hilltop retreat invites you to slow down and savor la dolce vita. Lounge by the pool, indulge in a spa treatment, or enjoy handmade pastas and regional wines as the sun sets over the valley. From this serene base, explore the best of Tuscany — from Florence's Renaissance treasures to Cinque Terre's seaside magic — before returning each evening to the peace and glow of your private terrace.

Rome: The Eternal City Awaits

In Rome, every cobblestone whispers a story. Stay two nights at Hotel Ponte Sisto, a beautifully restored palazzo near the River Tiber, just steps from Piazza Navona and Campo de' Fiori. Mornings start with espresso and fresh pastries before heading out to explore the city's icons — the Trevi Fountain, Spanish Steps, and Pantheon, all within easy reach.

As dusk falls, cross into Trastevere, where lanterns glow above ivy-draped balconies and trattorias hum with laughter. Savor homemade pasta and a glass of Chianti as street musicians play nearby. In Rome, every corner pulses with history, romance, and the timeless rhythm of la dolce vita.

Note: You may also choose to split your Rome stay — one night before Tuscany and one upon your return. Tuscany is 200 miles north of Rome (approximately 4 hours by car or 3 hours by train).

The Rome city tax must be paid by the traveler directly to the hotel upon departure. The current rate is €7.50 per person, per night, and is subject to change without prior notice.
