Since the 19th century, explorers, artists, and adventurers have been drawn here by the magnetic presence of Mont Blanc — Western Europe's highest summit. Snow-dusted ridgelines, glacier-carved valleys, and crisp alpine air create a setting that feels both powerful and poetic. This is a place where nature reigns supreme and every view feels earned.

Along the way, pause for a classic French aperitif featuring regional cheeses, charcuterie, and a traditional cocktail — a warm, authentic welcome to the valley.

A Taste of the Alps: Wine, Cheese & Charcuterie

Enjoy an intimate tasting experience highlighting four regional wines paired with traditional cheeses and charcuterie. As flavors unfold, learn how Alpine terroir shapes each wine and discover the craftsmanship behind France's most beloved food traditions. It's an experience that feels indulgent, social, and unmistakably French.

Mont Blanc Multi Pass: Your Key to the High Alps

Your Mont Blanc MultiPass is the ultimate key to the Alps — unlocking seamless access to the most iconic and exclusive experiences of the Chamonix Valley. Glide effortlessly between world-renowned cable cars, gondolas, and historic mountain trains, rising from charming alpine villages to soaring summits and ancient glaciers. With every ascent, the landscape transforms — an invitation to explore the high Alps with freedom, elegance, and a true spirit of discovery.

Over two consecutive days, your pass opens the door to legendary alpine sites including Brévent–Flégère, Balme Tour Vallorcine, Les Houches–Saint Gervais, Megève, the Bossons chairlift, the Tramway du Mont-Blanc, Montenvers Mer de Glace (including the cogwheel train, ice cave, and site access), and the unforgettable Aiguille du Midi.

Ascend to Aiguille du Midi, soaring to 3,842 meters in minutes, where Mont Blanc rises directly before you and sweeping 360° views stretch across France, Switzerland, and Italy. Step onto glass skywalks, linger on panoramic terraces, and feel the thrill of standing on the roof of Europe. From there, discover Brévent, Chamonix's sunlit balcony. Reachable by gondola, its elegant ridgelines offer one of the valley's most refined vantage points — golden light, sweeping alpine air, and uninterrupted views of Mont Blanc that invite you to pause, sip, and simply take it all in.

Travel back in time aboard the historic red cogwheel train to Montenvers Mer de Glace, where dramatic cliffs give way to France's largest glacier. Stand above the shimmering ice, explore curated exhibitions or the sculpted ice grotto, and experience the quiet majesty that has inspired mountaineers for centuries.

Complete the journey on the Tramway du Mont-Blanc, one of France's highest cogwheel railways. The train winds gracefully through alpine meadows and rugged slopes toward the Eagle's Nest, revealing glacier-carved landscapes and the timeless beauty of the high Alps.

Each ascent is effortless. Each view unforgettable. This is alpine exploration elevated — where grandeur, history, and refined adventure meet at every turn.
