Paint the Picture

Châteauneuf-du-Pape: The Heart of French Wine

- Wander through sunlit vineyards where history, faith, and flavor intertwine.
- Sample the Rhône Valley's finest vintages as local experts share the secrets of the terroir.
- Gaze from the ruins of the Pope's summer residence over rolling hills — a view as timeless as a painting.

In the Footsteps of Van Gogh

- Retrace the artist's story in Saint-Rémy-de-Provence, where olive trees and lavender fields inspired Starry Night.
- Continue to Arles, where cobbled streets and golden light echo in Van Gogh's brushstrokes.
- Stand where he painted Café Terrace at Night and The Yellow House — scenes still bathed in that same Provençal glow.

Avignon: Where Inspiration Lives

- Three nights in the heart of Provence at Hotel de Cambis — elegant, peaceful, and steps from history.
- Enjoy daily breakfast before exploring olive groves, medieval lanes, and the colors that stirred Van Gogh's imagination.

TGV to Paris: The Journey North

- Glide through the French countryside aboard the high-speed TGV — vineyards, villages, and river valleys passing like brushstrokes on a canvas.

Paris: The Artist's Legacy

- Stay two nights in a Prestige Room at Hôtel Louison, a chic boutique hotel in the elegant 6th arrondissement.
- Wake to a Parisian breakfast, stroll through the Luxembourg Gardens, and savor life on the Left Bank.
- Experience a skip-the-line guided tour of the Musée d'Orsay, standing before Starry Night Over the Rhône and Van Gogh's self-portraits — where his vision, born in Provence, lives forever on canvas.
