The Heart of Sonoma Wine Country is home to Healdsburg: Where vineyard-lined hills meet tree-shaded plazas, Healdsburg captures the spirit of California wine country with equal parts sophistication and small-town warmth. Here, world-class wineries, farm-to-table restaurants, and artisan boutiques surround a charming central square. It's a place to slow down, sip something extraordinary, and savor the simple pleasures of good company, great wine, and golden sunsets.

A Tasting at Lambert Bridge

Tucked among redwood-shaded hills, Lambert Bridge Winery is a hidden gem known for small-lot, handcrafted Bordeaux-style wines. This family-owned estate is built on a philosophy of sustainability and craftsmanship — where every bottle reflects the heart of Sonoma's terroir.

Your private seated tasting takes place in their stunning Redwood Barrel Room, surrounded by rows of aging oak barrels and the gentle scent of wine-soaked wood. Led by an expert Wine Educator, you'll explore both red and white wines, perfectly paired with light bites that highlight the flavors of the region. It's an intimate and memorable experience that celebrates the artistry behind every pour.

Rooftop Experience at The Matheson

As evening falls, the energy of Healdsburg comes alive at The Matheson, one of California's most celebrated dining destinations. At Roof 106, watch the sun dip behind the hills and gather around Chef's Best of the Best — a chef-selected spread of Roof 106's signature dishes, served family style and meant to be shared.

Your experience includes a cocktail each and a bottle of The Setting Sauvignon Blanc for the table. Chef and owner Dustin Valette, whose culinary roots run deep in Healdsburg, honors his grandfather's legacy — a beloved baker once known for his sourdough and hospitality — by crafting dishes that blend tradition with innovation. From the rooftop's sweeping views to the thoughtful flavors on every plate, this dinner is an expression of the Wine Country's soul: authentic, vibrant, and unforgettable.

Modern Comfort Meets Wine Country Charm

Your retreat is the stylish Hotel Trio Healdsburg, a contemporary boutique property that feels like a warm welcome home. Settle into a spacious studio king suite with a sofa bed and kitchenette and enjoy daily breakfast for two.

Spend leisurely mornings by the pool, borrow a bicycle for a ride through vineyards, or gather around the fire pits with a glass of local Pinot Noir. The hotel's location — just a mile from historic Healdsburg Plaza — makes it easy to explore tasting rooms, boutiques, and galleries, with complimentary shuttle service for effortless evenings out.

Note: Healdsburg is approximately 1.5 hours north of San Francisco and Oakland.
