SCOTLAND'S LEGENDARY LINKS

Scotland is more than the birthplace of golf. It is a place where the game feels woven into the landscape itself: emerald fairways roll toward windswept coastlines, ancient castles rise above cobblestone streets, and centuries of history seem to follow you from one round to the next. From the historic heart of Edinburgh to the legendary seaside town of St. Andrews, this five-night journey pairs two rounds of quintessential Scottish golf with charming accommodations, iconic sights, and the unmistakable warmth of Scottish hospitality. For anyone who loves the game, few places stir the soul quite like this.
